

The Urban Land Institute, Full Member
Public/Private Partnership Council, Member
Local District Council, Public Policy Committee

Ruth Wuorenma: Representative ULI Activity
(ULI Chicago activities in blue)

- Summer, 2008: ULI Chicago Selection Committee for the Annual Community Vision Award
- June 22-27, 2008: Advisory Services Panel convened by Eagle-Vail, a 30 year old master-planned community 7 miles from Vail, to examine how the community can maintain its high proportion of full-time residents with a mix of incomes and better use existing resources to enhance the quality of life for all.
- January 14-15, 2008, Wilmette, IL: ULI Chicago Technical Assistance Panel convened by the Village to examine the potential redevelopment and revitalization of the Village Center, linking both sides of the commuter rail tracks
- July 6, 10 and 17, 2006, Chicago Heights, IL: Served as a development advisor to the New City Community Development Corporation in its convening of a ULI Chicago panel to consider new connections to revitalize the East Side and Hill Communities.
- January 5-7, 2005, Pensacola, FL: Advisory Services Panel convened by Rebuild Northwest Florida to create a workforce and affordable housing strategy for the two westernmost counties of the state affected by Hurricane Ivan and which lost thousands of lower-income housing units
- September 22-23, 2004, Chicago, IL: Charles H. Shaw Forum on Urban Community Issues: "Involving the Community in Neighborhood Planning." The group of 20 included the heads of planning for the City of Los Angeles; Austin, Texas; San Jose, California; and developers and community supportive agencies representing diverse areas
- June 6-11, 2004, Camden, NJ: Advisory Services Panel convened by the Greater Camden Partnership and other public and private stakeholders to address a redevelopment plan for a severely disinvested retail corridor along Haddon Avenue
- 2004: Served as a facilitator and juror for Urban Plan classes with DePaul University
- December 7-12, 2003, Paterson, NJ: Advisory Services Panel convened by the State of New Jersey to create a transit-oriented development approach for Paterson that could be used as a model for TOD in the rest of the state
- July 22-24, 2003, Washington,,DC: Community Outreach Advisory Services Panel convened as the request of the Smart Growth Alliance to address "Barriers and Incentives to Transportation-Oriented Development" in the District of Columbia and Prince Georges and Prince Williams Counties
- June 2-7, 2002, Miami Florida: Advisory Services Panel convened to conceptualize a mixed-income homeownership redevelopment plan for one of Miami's poorest communities
- April , 2002, Washington, DC: ULI/HUD National Workshop on Workforce Housing